WHAT IS A DONOR-ADVISED FUND (DAF)?

A donor-advised fund is a giving vehicle administered by a charitable sponsor. Among the many public charities that sponsor DAFs are: Fidelity Charitable, Vanguard, Charles Schwab, and National Philanthropic Trust. DAFs may also be administered by a local community foundation.

Donor-advised funds are among the fastest-growing charitable giving vehicle in the United States. They present an easy way to donate and offer tax advantages for giving to charity.

A donor-advised fund allows donors to make an irrevocable charitable contribution, receive an immediate tax deduction, and then, over time, recommend grants from their fund to IRS-qualified charitable organizations of the donor’s choosing. Donors may contribute to the fund as frequently as they would like, and then recommend grants to their preferred charities whenever it makes sense. Right now there is no deadline for when funds from a DAF must be distributed.

HOW DOES A DONOR-ADVISED FUND WORK?

- Make a tax-deductible donation
  An individual donates cash, stocks or non-publicly traded assets to a public charity. The donor is eligible for an immediate tax deduction. A contribution to a donor-advised fund represents an irrevocable commitment; the funds cannot be returned to the donor or any other individual or used for any purpose other than grantmaking to charities.

- Watch your fund grow, tax-free
  While the funds remain in the donor-advised fund they can potentially increase, resulting in more money available for the donor to distribute to charitable organizations.

- Support nonprofit causes and organizations you care about, now and in the future
  At any time, the donor can recommend which nonprofit organization(s) should receive a grant. The public charity sponsoring the account is responsible for distributing the funds to the nonprofit(s) of the donor’s choosing.

WHEN DOES THE DONOR RECEIVE THE TAX BENEFIT?

The donor receives the tax benefit in the year the DAF is funded. At any later time, the individual can make recommendations as to which charitable organization(s) should receive a grant. At the time funds from the DAF are disbursed to the nonprofit(s), the donor does not receive a tax benefit.

For example: If the individual funds a DAF in 2022, the money could sit for years before being given to charity, but the person will get the tax credit in 2022, NOT when the money is eventually disbursed.

EXCITING OPPORTUNITY FOR DONOR-ADVISED FUND DONORS

We all know the critical work that is accomplished through the efforts of nonprofits, at the local, national, and international level. Yet, this can only be accomplished through the generous support of donors and philanthropic partners.

In 2020, a group of philanthropists created the #HalfMyDAF campaign to encourage individuals with donor-advised funds to accelerate the distribution of their funds to help address many of the challenging issues confronting us. To-date, the campaign has moved more than $19 million from DAFs to nonprofits.

THE 2022 #HALFMYDAF CAMPAIGN IS UNDERWAY!

Here’s how you can put your DAF to work:

• Commit to spending down half of the money in your Donor-Advised Fund by September 30, 2022, and become a #HalfMyDAF Hero.
• Every nonprofit you support becomes eligible for a matching grant – meaning double the funding to these organizations, up to $10,000. (Note that nonprofit recipients are randomly selected.)

DAF DONATIONS TO NAVY-MARINE CORPS RELIEF SOCIETY

For Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society, every dollar received has a significant impact. NMCRS offers financial assistance and education to active duty and retired Sea Service members and their families each and every day. In 2021, more than 34,000 clients were provided with $29.5 million in assistance. And in response to unanticipated and devastating events, the Society provides disaster assistance. Recently these efforts included assistance to individuals and families affected by the tornadoes that hit Navy Submarine Base Kings Bay, Georgia, those impacted by fires on the west coast, those in the east and south affected by hurricanes and flooding, and those impacted by the water crisis in Hawaii.

Navy-Marine Corps Relief Society understands that giving half your donor-advised fund at this time may not be possible, we are grateful for your support at any time. Your gift will be put to work immediately in support of active duty and retired Sailors, Marines and their families in need.
